In this course we study the scripts and orthographies of human languages worldwide. We approach the technology of writing from the following perspectives:

- Script types
 - o Morphographic, phonographic
 - Diacritics and other means of indicating prosody
- Script evolution
 - o Invention, borrowing, adaptation
 - Changes over time
- Script selection and modification
 - Scripts for unwritten languages; script and nation; scripts in bilingual contexts
- Script and identity display
 - o Deviation from standard orthographic practices for social purposes

At the end of this course, you will have gained a nuanced understanding of the ways in which signs have linked to the representation of words and speech throughout history, the advantages and disadvantages of different script types in the advancement of literacy and in the preservation of cultural heritage, the sociocultural and linguistic factors that bear on selection of a script for unwritten languages, and the ways in which individuals and communities deviate from standard practices of orthography to achieve social and political goals.

Assignments and Grading

- 1. Exercises (05%): These are five problem sets related to scripts discussed in Rogers. Prepare along with the assigned readings, and submit to instructor at the end of class on the date the assignment appears in the daily schedule.
- 2. Group Presentations (20%): Select one of the following topics based on your L1/L2 expertise, or your interests, to present the main points of the assigned reading. You should illustrate, critique and add to those points by introducing supplementary materials and information. Sign up for your selection by going to "People" and then selecting "Presentation Groups" on Canvas. Each group should have 3-4 members. Submit one copy per group of the slides or other visual support to Assignments in Canvas at least one hour prior to your presentation.
 - a. Topics
 - i. 01/26/15 Monday, Cuneiform
 - ii. 01/30/15 Friday, Egyptian hieroglyphs
 - iii. 02/04/15 Wednesday, Hebrew
 - iv. 02/06/15 Friday, Arabic
 - v. 03/11/15 Wednesday, Indian devanagari script (Hindi, Sanskrit)
 - vi. 03/20/15 Friday, Other script of your choice
 - vii. 03/30/15 Monday, Case of orthography as social practice, your choice
 - viii. 04/06/15 Monday, Russian script and orthography; Russian writing in immigrant contexts
 - b. Evaluation: Your presentation will be evaluated according to these parameters.

 - 2. Group members respond to questions and moderate effectively
- 3. Research paper (25%), 10-12 pages: This paper should address an issue related to script or orthography, and may include data analysis. The topic is completely up to you, but must be cleared by the instructor. Some past examples have included (a) script choice for computer-mediated communications (CMC) in a case where there is no established script or orthography, (b) optimal fonts for maximum ease of readability, (c) graffiti in bilingual contexts (e.g., Catalan/Spanish), (d) scripts and dyslexia, (e) history of orthography of a given language (e.g., Xhosa), (f) magical properties of scripts, (g) script reforms (e.g., China), (g) creole scripts and debates (e.g., Haitian Creole).

Your paper will be evaluated along the following parameters:

- a. Organization and coherence
