COURSE REQUIREMENTS

There will be ten reading assignments and three exams. Details about each exam and assignment will be available on the course website (on Canvas) at least three days prior to the due date.

- 1) Two Exams (30%): These exams may take the form of an online exam or an in-class exam or both.
 - Exam 1: Friday, March 1
 - Exam 2: Wednesday, April 24
- 2) Textbook Reading Assignments (35%): You will be expected to read five textbook chapters in preparation for classroom lectures and/or discussions. Each chapter will be accompanied with an online quiz. See Schedule for tentative distribution.
- 3) Additional Reading Assignments (15%): There will be six of these. Each assignment requires reading one journal article or book chapter and answering a set of questions. See Schedule for tentative distribution.
- 4) Extended Abstract and Oral Presentation (15%: 10% for the abstract + 5% for the presentation) Every student will be assigned to a group. The group will be assigned one of the readings in (3) above plus additional readings (articles, book chapters). Each member of the group will be expected to write a 2000-word essay that engages with a common theme in the assigned readings. The essay may take the form of an extended abstract. It is expected to do some or all of the following: (i) highlight a problem or a research question, (ii) provide data to illustrate the phenomenon under examination, (iii) discuss earlier work on the topic and explain why it is inadequate where possible, (iv) provide a solution to the problem. Students are encouraged to discuss the readings together, but each student does the write-up of the extended abstract alone. In addition, the group will be expected to work together to prepare an oral presentation of 20-50 minutes. Remember that the class will have read one of the assigned readings; the group's task is to engage the class with the topic beyond the article/book chapter that the rest of the class has read. You may use any material you deem necessary to accomplish this task; e.g., powerpoint presentation, games, videos, etc.

Sample extended abstracts may be found at:

<https://journals.linguisticsociety.org/proceedings/index.php/ExtendedAbs>

Here is another link that provides tips on how to write an extended abstract:

Here are some guidelines on how to present a conference papers. Some of these tips may be useful as you prepare your oral presentation, keeping in mind that the tips focus on conference presentations, which normally take the form of a lecture and questions by audience follow.

5) Language Policy and Planning – Country Presentation (5%)

The last module of the semester is on language policy and planning. Each group will be assigned a country plus suggested references (articles and book chapters) and will be expected to prepare a 20-25-minute presentation about the language situation (politics, policy, and planning) in that country.

All assignments must be typed. Additional specifications may accompany certain assignments.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUES

Canvas: All assignments, announcements, exercises, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory and will be assessed by roll call. Absences will be excused in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable excuses include illness, religious holidays, & military obligation: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>. These need to be documented excuses. Should you miss a class for any reason, you are responsible for informing yourself about the material covered. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF accepted excused absences, there will be no make-up option for missed exams/assignments. Where possible, make-ups should be arranged prior to absence. Alternatively, students should contact me upon return to classes.

You may miss 3 sessions without any penalty. Every absence thereafter results in minus 1% deducted from your final grade unless the absence is a documented excuse. Arriving late (within 5 minutes of the beginning of class time) or leaving early (within 5 minutes before class is dismissed) is considered a half absence and results in minus .5% from the final grade. Missing more than 5 minutes of class time is considered absence.

Refer to the following website:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences>

Late and Make-Up Work: No late work will be accepted or make-ups will be offered unless the student offers a legitimate documented excuse. See Attendance above.

An academic honesty offense is defined as the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. Violations of the honor code include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, bribery, misrepresentation, fabrication, and conspiracy. Such violations may result in the following: lowering of grades, mandatory 0 on assignments, redoing assignments, a final failing grade in the course, expulsion from the course, referral to the student-run Honor Court. The Honor Code states: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment. For more information, refer to: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/1617/advising/info/student-honor-code.aspx#honesty>
