COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course describes and analyzes the sound system, word structure, sentence structure, and semantics of Arabic.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course,

- You should be able to retain linguistic facts about the Arabic language.
- You should be able to recognize and transcribe Arabic sounds broadly and fairly accurately using the International Phonetic Alphabet.
- Given enough data, you should be able to
 - identify the necessary structural elements at the word and sentence levels;
 - arrive at linguistic generalizations; and
 - explain your answers by providing solid arguments

Long-Term Objectives:

You will be able to

- appreciate language as a unique human system worth investigating;
- look at your own language as an outsider and appreciate it more.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1) Exams – 40%

There will be two in-class exams. Each will be a two-day exam and is worth (20%).

a. Exam 1: Mon-Wed, Feb 23-25

b. Exam 2: Mon-Wed, Apr 20-22

2) Textbook Reading Assignments – 20%

You are expected to read assigned textbook chapters and to answer questions (multiple choice, open-ended, etc.) online before class.

3) Additional Reading Assignments (Articles/Book Chapters) – 40%

There will be 8 of these distributed throughout the semester. Each assignment requires the reading of one or two journal articles or book chapters (not to exceed 60 pages) in order to answer questions or write an extended abstract. Sample extended abstracts may be found at:

<http://elanguage.net/journals/index.php/lsameeting/issue/view/134>

Here is another link that provides tips on how to write an abstract:

<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/linguistics/assets/documents/abstractadvice.pdf>

All answers/abstracts must be submitted online.

All assignments must be typed. Additional specifications may accompany certain assignments.

You may discuss/are encouraged to discuss all assignments with your classmates, but you are required to complete the assignments (answer the online questions, do the write-up) alone.

Grading Scale (& GPA equivalent):

100-93	92-90	89-87	86-83	82-80	79-77	76-73	72-70	69-67	63-66	62-60	59-

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUES

Canvas: All assignments, announcements, exercises, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory and will be assessed by roll call. Absences will be excused in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable excuses include illness, religious holidays, & military obligation: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>. These need to be documented excuses. Should you miss a class for any reason, you are responsible for informing yourself about the material covered. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF accepted excuse, there will be no make-up option for missed exams/assignments. Where possible, make-ups should be arranged prior to absence. Alternatively, students should contact me on return to classes.

You may miss 3 sessions without any penalty. Every absence thereafter results in minus 1% deducted from your final grade unless the absence is a documented excuse. Arriving late (within 5 minutes of the beginning of class time) or leaving early (within 5 minutes before class is dismissed) is considered a half absence and results in minus .5% from the final grade. Missing more than 5 minutes of class time is considered absence.

Refer to the following website:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences>

Late and Make-Up Work: No late work will be accepted or make-ups will be offered unless the student offers a legitimate documented excuse. See Attendance above.

Cell phones and other electronic devices: Students are expected to put their cellphones on silent + no vibration during class sessions. No texting or cellphone/smartphone activities are allowed during class time. No electronic devices are needed in this course. Accordingly, all other electronic devices must be put away as well.

Academic Integrity: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. An academic honesty offense is defined as the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. Violations of the honor code include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, bribery, misrepresentation, fabrication, and conspiracy. Such violations may result in the following: lowering of grades, mandatory 0 on assignments, redoing assignments, a final failing grade in the course, expulsion from the course, referral to the student-run Honor Court. The Honor Code states: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment. For more information, refer to: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/Academic_Honesty.html

Students with Special Needs: Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (Disability Resources in Reid Hall). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Contact the Disability Resources Center (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>) for information about available resources.

Counseling & Mental Health Resources: Students facing difficulties completing the course or who are in need of counseling or urgent help should call the on-campus Counseling and Wellness Center (352-392-1575; <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/>).

Online Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>.
