

Fall 2019: MWF 7th period: 1:55-2:45 (Anderson 32)

Instructor: Samantha Creel, MA

screel@ufl.edu

Office Hours: Mon. 10:40-12:35 & Weds. 10:40-11:30 (Turlington 4118), and by appointment

Course Textbook and Additional Readings: For this course, we will primarily read chapters from the following textbook:

Brown, H.D. & Lee, H. (2015). Teaching by Principles: An Interactive Approach to Language Pedagogy (4th Edition). White Plains, New York: Pearson.

We will also read chapters from several other textbooks. These additional readings will be made available on Canvas.

Course Description: In this course, we will explore the following two questions:

“How can we be effective English as a Second Language (ESL) teachers?”

“How can we help students become successful English language learners?”

In doing so, the goal of the course is to help you develop your pedagogical knowledge and the skills to put that knowledge into practice across a range of teaching contexts.

Course Objectives: By the end of the course, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of some of the principles of English language pedagogy
- Design effective ESL lessons and materials focusing on various language skills
- Utilize a range of pedagogical skills for effectively guiding and managing classroom language learning

Course Learning Tasks: To accomplish the objectives of this course, we will complete the following tasks:

Reading Responses (15%): The assigned readings are an essential component of this course as they will determine the scope and topic of discussion during each class session. For this reason, each course reading will be accompanied by reading questions (provided on Canvas) that will help guide your reading and prepare you for class discussions and activities. It is your task to complete these reading questions before class and come ready to discuss them. I will collect them randomly for a completion grade, and each completed reading response is worth 5 points. Print or electronic is okay as long as you have access to them during class and can email me a copy on the days I collect them. If you miss class on a day I collected the responses, e-mail me a scanned copy or picture of your reading response within 24 hours after the missed class to receive credit.

Lessons Plans (2 x 7.5%; 15% total): Being able to create lesson plans and materials is an essential skill in the daily life of an ESL teacher. In order to practice this skill, you will prepare two detailed 50 minute lesson plans (including any materials for the lesson) for a classroom context of your choosing. One lesson plan should follow the PPP format, while the other should follow the TBLT format. More details (including a rubric) will be provided on Canvas.

Language Learning Tasks (3 x 5%; 15% total): In order to give you practice creating materials for language teaching, you will create three tasks that could be used in a language learning classroom. Two of these tasks can focus on reading, writing, speaking, or listening, while the third task should be a focus on form task. More details (including a rubric) will be provided on Canvas.

Classroom Observation (10%): You will observe one ESL class at the UF English Language Institute and write a 500-750 word report on your observation, connecting what you observe in the class with ideas from the readings and class discussions, as well as your own beliefs about language teaching. More details (including a rubric) will be provided on Canvas.

ESL Interaction (5%): You will interact with ESL learners by attending ESL classes and meeting with a conversation partner. Afterwards, you will write a 250-500 word report on your interaction, connecting what happened with ideas from the readings and class discussions, as well as your own beliefs about language teaching. More details will be provided on Canvas.

Peer Teaching Demonstration (20%): You and a group of classmates will design and demonstrate a 30 minute ESL lesson to your classmates. You and your peer(s) will be the classroom teachers, while your classmates will assume the role of English language learners in your class. This assignment will help you gain valuable experience creating and carrying out lessons. For this assignment, there will be three components:

- 1) E-mailing your lesson plan (including materials) to me and meeting with me to receive feedback at least three days before teaching
- 2) Uploading final lesson plan and materials to Canvas by 10:00 AM the day of your demonstration
- 3) Teaching the lesson to the class

Peer Teaching Reflection (10%): Within a week of completing your peer teaching, you will write and submit a 500-750 word individual reflection on your experience teaching. This reflection should critically assess your experience with teaching as well as connect your teaching experience with the concepts covered in course readings and discussions.

Teaching Portfolio (10%): When applying for teaching positions, you will usually be asked to provide a teaching portfolio that showcases who you are as a teacher. To prepare you for this, you will develop a teaching portfolio with the following items: (1) a reflective essay about your experience in the class, (2) a 50 minute first-day-of-class lesson plan, (3) your two lesson plans, (4) your three language learning tasks, and (5) the lesson plan from your peer teaching. More details will be provided on Canvas.

*In addition to what we do in this class, I encourage you to volunteer to be a Conversation Partner to an English Language Institute student. It requires just 1 hour of your time each week during which you will meet with a student learning English and help them practice informal speaking. It's a great way to get to know someone from another culture and get used to working with students learning English! ☺ Check out the ELI's website and here <https://language-studio.clas.ufl.edu/conversation-partners/> for more information.

Course Policies

Attendance: Because class meetings will include a mix of teacher-led lectures, in-class activities, discussions of course readings, and teaching demonstrations, class attendance is not only mandatory, but vital for your success in this course. You are expected to attend all class meetings on time, with readings and any homework assignments completed in advance. You are expected to stay for the entirety of the class and remain engaged until the end of class. You are also expected to bring your course textbook and other required daily readings to class each day.

However, I understand that life can interfere with course work and you might have to miss class, arrive late, or leave early. For this reason, you are allowed to have four unexcused absences. Each unexcused absence beyond that may lower your final course grade by one level (e.g. from A to A-). Excused absences should be consistent with UF policies (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>).

Canvas: Canvas will be our primary communication channel when not in class. Use your Gatorlink to login to <elearning.ufl.edu>. All class resources (e.g. additional readings, PPTs, reading responses, worksheets, handouts) will be stored in Canvas. Assignments will be submitted to Canvas unless otherwise stated. Feedback on assignments will also be submitted via Canvas. For these reasons, make sure you know how to upload assignments, view feedback on those uploads, and receive notifications and announcements. Additionally, checking the Canvas homepage regularly will be essential for success in this course. If there is every a discrepancy between the tentative course schedule provided below and the online Canvas schedule, please follow the schedule posted on Canvas.

Late work: Late work is not accepted except in the event of verifiable extenuating circumstances. An extenuating circumstance is an event beyond your control, such as an accident or emergent medical condition. Verifiable means that supporting documents will be required.

E-mail: If you need to contact me outside of class or office hours, please send me an email and I will do my best to respond within 24 hours. If it's the weekend, it may take me more than 24 hours to respond. Please feel free to email with any questions that you have about the course or constructive feedback.

Accommodation: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (<https://disability.ufl.edu/>). Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Please follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Academic honesty: Students are held accountable to the UF Honor Code: (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>)
